Two Elderly Men Are Landed in the County Jail.

GAVE LITTLE GIRLS BEER

EVEN MORE SERIOUS CHARGE IS LAID AGAINST THEM.

Two men who give their ages at more than fifty years are in the county jail on a very serious charge. They arrested at Calder's park last night by criminal assault upon two little girls, one 9 years old and the other 13, one 9 years old and the other 13.

The little girls who were kept in the county jail last night are almost outcasts. They are so young that they do not realize their condition. The mother of one is in the city jail on a charge of drunkenness and Deputy Sheriff MacDuff found the mother of the other half drunk in the Klondike saloon last night. Sheriff Howells had her leaked up too.

Bought Beer For Girls.

According to their story, they met the two men, who gave their names at the jail as John Olson and George Schwartz at the cane rack at Calder's. They went over to a table and Schwartz sent them for some beer. They bought two bottles. The men asked them to drink this. Margaret said that she took a glass. The men both admit that they offered the children beer. Afterwards they started to the theatre but did not go in. They sat down at a table in the shadow of a light. There the men had more beer and bought soda water for the children. Both of the little girls declare that they sat on the laps of these two old men and that when liberties with them were attempted they rebelled. When all of them started down past the theatre on the pathway that leads off into the brush, according to the girls, the two men tried to get them to separate, but they would not do so. Then they were taken around to the race track on the bleat that it was the shortest way back to the theatre. While there Deputy Barrett came up and arrested them.

One Man a Father.

Olson said that he is a farmer at Union and that he has three children of his own, one a little girl. He drove in to Calder's to spend the evening and there met Schwartz. He denied that he had done anything improper to the little girls though he said that the smaller of the two had sat in his lap.

Schwartz said that he had not held one of the children. He also declared that he was the day bertender at Reilley's saloon on State street. Both of the men maintain that they had the girls with them simply because they followed and begard for rides on the merry-go-round and to be taken to the theatre.

Sheriff Howells will probably suggest that the children should be sent to the reform school at Ogden. They said that Mrs. Klein permitted them to go to Calder's alone. BREAK FOR LIBERTY.

"I shall oppose the motion," said Fernstrom. "I don't think that we are so very disnified after all. We are run by others right along. It is an open matter all over the city that we are controlled. When a citizen and taxpayer sends in a communication to this council it should be treated decently."

"The remarks of the councilman from the Third are all bosh," said Thomas, "This letter is a lot of baby talk from a man who has been turned down," said Canning, "It ought to be sent back to him."

The Mayor's Color Up.

When the letter was read, at the request of Hartenstein, it made the mayor Guest of Hartenstein, it made the mayor and his secretary. Eichnor, color upfor it went on to speak of the fact that there was a nominal mayor and a real mayor. The letter was, it fact, replete with gentle 'asimuations that the Republican councilmen and the mayor are not men of great incellingence. Mr. Pugsley's idea was that the council was being run by the Republican city committee.

On a strict party vote the motion to return the letter to Pugsley was carried and it will be sent back to him. A communication from Chief Devine of the fire department, inviting the council to visit the new-fare station on I street, was read and referred to the street, was read and referred to the New Bond Issue.

Canning offered a resolution, which was referred to the finance committee, recommending that the new jonal issue be made in denominations of not less than $500 and $1,000. He did not say was behind this scheme.

Thomas offered an ordinance, which was pensed, appropriating $3.000 for he Utah Central convany when 'it was removed its tracks from Eighth South, Ninth South and the vest bank of the Jordan canal. The resolution was simply a corrected form of the resolution passed at the last session of the council. It is not known yet if the company will accept the con-ditions of the ordinance.
